NOTE: This memo provides general guidance regarding qualifying for In-State tuition at CUNY School of Law. It is based on and controlled by the “Residency” section of The City University of New York Tuition and Fee Manual. Please review Section IV “Residency” in the Tuition and Fee Manual, particularly “Rules Relating to Establishing Residence in New York” in Section IV, Part I (A). The “University Tuition and Fee Manual” is available at http://www.cuny.edu/about/administration/offices/la/tuition-fee-manual.html.

To initially qualify for New York State Resident Rate tuition, or to change from Non-Resident Rate Tuition to Resident Rate tuition, students must complete the CUNY Residency Form, which is described below. In order to have financial aid accurately computed for disbursement during the Spring 2015 Semester, the CUNY Residency Form must be submitted to the Registrar’s Office, Room 4/109, NO LATER THAN Jan. 12, 2015, together with documentation described in the Tuition and Fee Manual and below. (Note that the last day to apply for the Resident Tuition Rate for the Spring 2015 is the last day of Spring 2015 classes, but applying after Jan. 12, 2015 may result in the need to recapture fall overpayments from spring financial aid disbursements.) Please see page 3 below for information on NY State Education Law provisions qualifying certain non-residents, including undocumented, out of status, certain non-resident students including students who received a NY State high school or GED degree, for resident rate tuition.

Qualifying for New York State Resident Tuition
To qualify for the senior college resident tuition rate, a student must
- - be a U.S. citizen, permanent resident or in a qualifying immigration status;
- - and must have continuously maintained his/her principal place of abode in the State of New York for a period of at least twelve (12) consecutive months immediately preceding the first day of classes;
- - and have a bona fide intention of living in New York permanently.

Tuition and Fee Manual (Section IV, Part I (A)).

A student may also qualify for a resident rate of tuition if she/he qualifies pursuant to New York State Education Law Section 6206(7) (a) (i), (ii) or (iii), including undocumented and out of status students, and certain non-residents. (See Tuition and Fee Manual, Section IV – Part I (B) for further explanation.)
Registering to vote in New York a minimum of twelve (12) months prior to the first day of the semester, having a New York State Driver’s License or New York State “non-driver license” dated a minimum of twelve (12) months prior to the first day of the semester, and filing a New York State Resident Income Tax Return covering a period a minimum of twelve (12) months prior to the first day of the semester, are among persuasive factors in a residency determination by the Law School.

Students Under Age 24
Generally the state of residency of a dependent student under the age of 24 is considered the same as that of his or her custodial parent(s) or legal guardian(s). Students aged 24 and older are considered independent and are not deemed to have the same state of residency as their parent(s) or legal guardian(s). Under a policy effective beginning the Spring 2014 semester, a student under the age of 24 whose parent(s) or legal guardian(s) reside out of state, who otherwise meets CUNY’s residency requirements and is not financially independent from his/her parents, is eligible for the resident tuition rate if the student can show that he/she has changed his/her domicile, i.e. the place that he/she has a bona fide intention of living permanently, to New York State. Such a showing must be made by clear and convincing evidence.

Students under 24 who claim that New York is their domicile should carefully review “Rules Relating to Establishing Residence in New York” set forth in Section IV, Part I of the Tuition and Fee Manual, http://www.cuny.edu/about/administration/offices/la/tuition-fee-manual.html

Applying for NY State Resident Rate Tuition

The City University Residency Form

In all cases where a determination needs to be made as to whether a student is eligible for resident tuition, the student must complete the The City University Residency Form. Part A of the Form needs to be completed by all students; Part B of the Form needs to be completed by students who are undocumented or out-of-status immigrants who are seeking resident tuition based on high school attendance/graduation or having received a GED in New York; and Part C needs to be completed by students who are seeking to be classified as New York State Residents.

The City University Residency Form is attached to this informational memo and is also available at: http://www.cuny.edu/about/administration/offices/la/tuition-fee-manual/residency-form.pdf

For information on Eligibility for the Resident Tuition Rate based on each of the following, please refer to the section of the Tuition and Fee Manual identified:

Part I (A) – Qualifying for the Resident Tuition Rate Based on Residence in the State of New York;
Part I (A) – Rules Relating to Establishing Residence in New York;
Part I (B) – Qualifying Immigration Statuses;
Part I (B) – Qualifying for Resident Tuition under the New York State Education Law Based on Having Attended and Graduated from a New York High School or Having Received a GED in the State of New York, including Undocumented and Out-of-Status immigrants;
Part I (C) – Other categories including
1. Military Personnel (and their Families) and Veterans;
2. United Nations Personnel;
3. Exchange Students.

The procedures the University follows in making determinations of eligibility for Resident Tuition status are set forth in Section IV, Part II of the Tuition and Fee Manual. For students required to submit “Part C” of the City University Residency Form, please refer to that section for information on documentation required to be submitted with Part C. See also Tuition and Fee Manual Part I (A) “Rules Relating to Establishing Residence in New York”.

Please note that in accordance with University policy documentation of proof of residency must be for the 12 month period immediately preceding the first day of classes. In addition to the items set forth as prospective documentation in Section IV – Part II of the Tuition and Fee Manual, the Law School may at its discretion consider additional documentation from a student if the school believes that an accurate residency determination may be rendered through the additional documentation.

• The college will not review any residency determination unless the request for the review is made, and all the required documentation is submitted, during the semester for which resident tuition is being sought.

• If the College finally determines that you are non-resident and you wish to appeal, you must notify the Registrar's Office (or other designated college appeal office) in writing within ten days of being notified that you have been determined to be a non-resident. At that time you may submit a statement to the Registrar (or other designated official) indicating why you disagree with the College’s decision. The Registrar (or other designated official) will submit the City University Residency Form, copies of all documentation provided by you and any statement made by you, along with the College’s determination, to the University’s Office of the Vice Chancellor for Legal Affairs and General Counsel.
