CUNY SCHOOL OF LAW

AUDIT FORM

1. A student must formally register for a course and pay applicable tuition and fees.

2. A student will not receive credit or a grade for an audited course. An audited course cannot later be converted to a graded course. You may not subsequently take the same course for credit.

3. The credit equivalent of the audited course may not cause the student's course load to exceedthe maximum allowable credits.

4. A student may register to audit a course during the registration period, but not later than thelast day of the add period. Audited courses dropped after the applicable drop period will be reflected by a "W" on the student's transcript.

5. Attendance is required of auditors, however, since auditors do not receive grades, they are excused from taking examinations and do not have to submit work.
