CASES AND U.N. DECISION CITATIONS AND LITIGATION

Special Jurisdiction for Peace, Colombia (Jurisdicción Especial para la Paz), Case 02: Prioritizing the Territorial Situation of Recaurte, Tumaco and Barbacoas (Nariño), Auto No. 03 de la SRVR (July 5, 2023), fn. 3316. Trial Judgment. Finding crimes against humanity of persecution based on gender, race and ethnicity, citing Lisa Davis, Dusting Off the Law Books: Recognizing Gender Persecution in Conflicts and Atrocities, 20 NW. J. HUM. RTS 1 (2021).

U.N. Security Council, Special Adviser and Head of the United Nations Investigative Team to Promote Accountability for Crimes Committed by Da’esh/Islamic State in Iraq and the Levant addressed to the President of the Security Council, para. 82, U.N. Doc. S/2019/878 (Nov. 13, 2019), citing the cooperative agreement between UNITAD and the HRGJ Clinic.

International Law Commission Seventy-first Session Geneva, 29 April–7 June and 8 July–9 August 2019, Fourth report on crimes against humanity, Sean D. Murphy, Special Rapporteur, fn. 204, U.N. Doc. A/CN.4/725 (2019), citing a joint letter to the U.N. Secretary-General from the HRGJ Clinic, et al., (Dec. 2018).

Supreme Court of India, Navtej Singh Johar & Ors. v. Union of India, Ministry of Law and Justice, Writ Petition (Criminal) No. 76 of 2016, Judgment (2018), fn. 106, citing the HRGJ Clinic’s 2013 joint submission to the U.N. Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination Against Women, in its historic case striking down Penal Code Section 377, which criminalized specific homosexual sexual acts between adults.

U.N. Committee Against Torture (CAT), Concluding Observations on the Initial Report of Iraq, Advanced Unedited Version, para. 23 (d) (2015). The HRGJ Clinic filed a legal submission before the CAT Committee on behalf of Iraqi clients, arguing for state accountability in cases of private actor violence. In an unprecedented decision, the Committee determined that state agents may be held accountable for resulting third-party gender-based violence in the context of shelter services. See also, U.N. Security Council Informal Experts Group on Women, Peace and Security, “Republic of Iraq” U.N. Doc. S/2016/683 (April 29, 2016), calling on the government of Iraq to “issue a directive clarifying that Iraqi NGOs may provide much-needed services to survivors of gender-based violence, including shelter” in response to the CAT Committee’s Concluding Observation.

Inter-American Court of Human Rights, Karen Atala and Daughters v. Chile (2012). HRGJ Clinic co-authored the only amicus curiae brief to argue that sexual orientation and gender identity are protected classes under international law. The Court issued a groundbreaking decision, prohibiting discrimination based on sexual orientation or gender identity.

Inter-American Commission on Human Rights, Decision Re: Women and Girls Victims in Haiti (2010). Served as lead counsel for a petition filed by the HRGJ Clinic on behalf of displaced Haitian women and girls facing sexual assault, which resulted in the Commission’s first-ever precautionary measures decision recognizing state responsibility to prevent third-party sexual violence.
